

Teaching Unit: Footsteps to Freedom at the Camp Nelson National Monument

OVERVIEW: THE CAMP NELSON CURRICULUM

This teaching collection aims to engage students in the history of the Camp Nelson National Monument in Kentucky with a focus on the enslaved individuals who made the site their own.

What is included:

- Multi-chapter digital exhibit 'Footsteps to Freedom'
- Resource library and gallery.
- 3-5 Lesson plans

Teacher Note/Content warning:

Due to the use of primary documents some of the following materials contain racial slurs and outdated language. Be sure to give students advance warning and underscore how such terms have evolved across time and can cause harm.